The Sunday Eucharist, Rite II

Congregational Singing Suspended for Indoor, In-Person Worship in the Diocese of Newark

Welcome St. John's in Boonton! And today we do still mean the church building in Boonton! The Diocese of Newark's decision to resume in-person worship was made county-by-county when the pandemic metrics for each county began to fall to lower levels of infection risk. Such decisions have always been contingent upon those metrics remaining on their downward trend. The Diocese of Newark's policies follow the same logic as those of New Jersey State and federal agencies such as the Centers for Disease Control: higher risk to the community may require re-imposing appropriate restrictions on public behavior. As before, the purpose is to lower the number of people who get infected by making vaccination as widespread as possible, and lowering transmission through mask-wearing (primarily for the unvaccinated, but encouraged for all), hand-washing (definitely for all), and social distancing (again most urgent for the unvaccinated). But there's a new twist: by driving down infection rates, we are not only starving the pandemic of new hosts to infect, but also denying it time to mutate; we hope to prevent it from "evolving past" the highly-effective vaccines we have created. Because God's house must be open to all, vaccinated or not, please review the following essential protocols and practices that will be in place during this current High Risk Level Orange (the one significant change is #3):

- 1) All participants, including the congregation, must wear masks while in the church, and are encouraged to wear them outdoors as well.
- 2) All participants, except those from the same household, must maintain at least six feet of space between themselves; prayer books or service materials should be passed or shared only between members of the same household. The same holds true for physical contact, including at the Peace.
- 3) Congregational singing is again suspended. Because singing produces smaller, "aerolized" saliva droplets that travel farther and remain suspended longer in the air, there will be NO final hymn.
- 4) At the Offertory, the alms basins will not be passed; instead, at the conclusion of the liturgy, the Greeter will hold an alms basin in the center aisle, into which you can place your checks, cash, or sealed pledge envelopes, as you exit the building. Please also see on the penultimate page of this Order of Worship instructions for making your offering via electronic transfer.
- 5) The Eucharistic bread and wine will be kept on the credence table in the chancel from the beginning of the liturgy, rather than carried up from the back.
- 6) While the public health emergency lasts, the People will receive communion only in one kind, the bread. At the time of the communion,
 - a. Please stand and remain at your place in the pew, the Celebrant will come to you
 - b. If you wish to receive, please hold your hands out in front of you, right hand over left
 - c. The Celebrant will drop the wafer into your hands to avoid physical contact
 - d. Please wait until the Celebrant is at least six feet away before lifting your mask to consume the wafer. Communion on the tongue is not permitted at this time.
 - e. To receive only a blessing, please stand in place with your arms crossed over your chest
 - f. Those attending via the Zoom livestream will be led in the Act of Spiritual Communion.
- 7) The Clergy will not greet the People at the church door, nor will there be an actual, or virtual Coffee Hour until further notice.
- 8) The Service Music, such as the Gloria, Sursum Corda, and Fraction Anthem, have been pre-recorded to be played at the appropriate time. These sections are marked as (Recorded). Please do not sing aloud with these. At the conclusion of the Eucharistic Prayer, the Great Amen should be said by all the People in a loud voice of assent.

All those who are participating via the live stream of our service are asked to please keep your microphones muted throughout the service; however, we encourage you to read the People's responses aloud along with us, wherever you are (see last page for more information).

Those on Zoom, please keep your mics muted throughout the service; but do read with us the People's responses out loud
The People's responses are in boldface. Rubrics (liturgical directions) are in red.

The People sit for the Readings

THE WORD OF GOD

The First Reading

Job 23:1-9, 16-17

A Reading from the book of Job.

Job said:

“Today also my complaint is bitter;
his hand is heavy despite my groaning.

Oh, that I knew where I might find him,
that I might come even to his dwelling!

I would lay my case before him,
and fill my mouth with arguments.

I would learn what he would answer me,
and understand what he would say to me.

Would he contend with me in the greatness of his power?
No; but he would give heed to me.

There an upright person could reason with him,
and I should be acquitted forever by my judge.

“If I go forward, he is not there;
or backward, I cannot perceive him;

on the left he hides, and I cannot behold him;
I turn to the right, but I cannot see him.

God has made my heart faint;
the Almighty has terrified me;

If only I could vanish in darkness,
and thick darkness would cover my face!”

Lector The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Responsory: Psalm 22:1-15 Deus, Deus meus

The Lector begins

1 My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? *

The People read in unison with the Lector for the remainder of the Responsory

and are so far from my cry and from the words of my distress?

- 2 O my God, I cry in the daytime, but you do not answer; *
by night as well, but I find no rest.
- 3 Yet you are the Holy One, *
enthroned upon the praises of Israel.
- 4 Our forefathers put their trust in you; *
they trusted, and you delivered them.
- 5 They cried out to you and were delivered; *
they trusted in you and were not put to shame.
- 6 But as for me, I am a worm and no man, *
scorned by all and despised by the people.
- 7 All who see me laugh me to scorn; *
they curl their lips and wag their heads, saying,
- 8 “He trusted in the LORD; let him deliver him; *
let him rescue him, if he delights in him.”
- 9 Yet you are he who took me out of the womb, *
and kept me safe upon my mother’s breast.
- 10 I have been entrusted to you ever since I was born; *
you were my God when I was still in my mother’s womb.
- 11 Be not far from me, for trouble is near, *
and there is none to help.
- 12 Many young bulls encircle me; *
strong bulls of Bashan surround me.
- 13 They open wide their jaws at me, *
like a ravening and a roaring lion.
- 14 I am poured out like water;
all my bones are out of joint; *
my heart within my breast is melting wax.
- 15 My mouth is dried out like a pot-sherd;
my tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth; *
and you have laid me in the dust of the grave.

The People stand as are able as the Deacon rises to proclaim the Gospel

The Holy Gospel

Mark 9:30-37

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

As Jesus was setting out on a journey, a man ran up and knelt before him, and asked him, “Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?” Jesus said to him, “Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: ‘You shall not murder; You shall not commit adultery; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness; You shall not defraud; Honor your father and mother.” He said to him, “Teacher, I have kept all these since my youth.” Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said, “You lack one thing; go, sell what you own, and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.” When he heard this, he was shocked and went away grieving, for he had many possessions.

Then Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, “How hard it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!” And the disciples were perplexed at these words. But Jesus said to them again, “Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.” They were greatly astounded and said to one another, “Then who can be saved?” Jesus looked at them and said, “For mortals it is impossible, but not for God; for God all things are possible.”

Peter began to say to him, “Look, we have left everything and followed you.” Jesus said, “Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields, for my sake and for the sake of the good news, who will not receive a hundred-fold now in this age—houses, brothers and sisters, mothers and children, and fields with persecutions—and in the age to come eternal life. But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first.”

Deacon The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Homily The Rev. Barry M. Signorelli
A brief period of silence may follow the homily

The Nicene Creed

The People stand as are able as the Celebrant says

Let us stand as we are able to affirm our faith, in the words of the Nicene Creed.

The Celebrant and the People together

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The People remain standing as are able for the Prayers of the People

The Prayers of the People

The Deacon reads the petitions; silence is kept; the People respond as indicated

Deacon

Let us pray for the Church and for the world.

Grant, Almighty God, that all who confess your Name may be united in your truth, live together in your love, and reveal your glory in the world. We pray for Michael, our Presiding Bishop; Carlye our Bishop Diocesan; for the people of St. John's, Boonton; and the Diocese of Newark.

Silence

Deacon Lord, in your mercy
People Hear our prayer.

Guide the people of this land, and of all the nations, in the ways of justice and peace; that we may honor one another and serve the common good. We remember especially Joe our President; Kamala our Vice President; the members of the Senate and the House of Representatives; the Justices of the Supreme Court; and all branches of state and local governments.

Silence

Deacon Lord, in your mercy
People Hear our prayer.

Give us all a reverence for the earth as your own creation, that we may use its resources rightly in the service of others and to your honor and glory. We pray for wisdom and fortitude to avert the impending disaster of climate change, and to be faithful stewards of the earth and its resources.

Silence

Deacon Lord, in your mercy
People Hear our prayer.

Look with compassion upon all who stray from your will for us; be merciful to us when we sin against you in thought, word, and deed; and give us grace to ✠ repent of our wrongdoings, and to amend our lives, that we may love you above all else, and love our neighbors as ourselves.

Silence

Deacon Lord, in your mercy
People Hear our prayer.

Bless all whose lives are closely linked with ours, and grant that we may serve Christ in them, and love one another as he loves us. Help us to recognize our neighbor in everyone we meet, that we see not strangers, but our sisters and brothers, the beloved of God.

Silence

Deacon Lord, in your mercy
People Hear our prayer.

Comfort and heal all those who suffer in body, mind, or spirit; give them courage and hope in their troubles, and bring them the joy of your salvation. We remember especially those afflicted with COVID-19 and every other illness; and for those oppressed for their appearance or heritage, by reason of economic injustice, or because of those whom they love.

Silence

Deacon Lord, in your mercy
People Hear our prayer.

We commend to your mercy ✠ all who have died, that your will for them may be fulfilled; and we pray that, with Blessed Mary the Godbearer and Blessed John the Apostle, we may share with all your saints in your eternal kingdom.

Silence

Deacon Lord, in your mercy
People Hear our prayer.

The Celebrant then prays a concluding collect

Celebrant

Heavenly Father, you have promised to hear what we ask in the Name of your Son: Accept and fulfill our petitions, we pray, not as we ask in our ignorance, nor as we deserve in our sinfulness, but as you know and love us in your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Peace

All standing as are able, the Celebrant says to the People

People The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
And also with you.

The People greet one another in the name of the Lord

The People sit as the Celebrant offers brief words of welcome and any announcements or news to be shared with the parish

THE OFFERTORY

The Offertory begins with the Celebrant saying the Offertory Sentence. Please see Note 4 on the Current Requirements sheet regarding the on-site collection of alms. Please also see the penultimate page of this Order of Worship for instructions on how to make a donation to St. John's, Boonton electronically. Your generous support is deeply appreciated.

The Deacon then prepares the Table

As the Celebrant takes his place at the Altar, the People stand as are able

The Celebrant sets apart the gifts of bread and wine with the following words

Blessèd are you, O Sovereign God, Ruler of the Universe, who has given us this bread for our use. Grain of the earth and work of human hands, ✠ it will become for us the Bread of Heaven.

People Blessèd be God for ever.

Celebrant Blessèd are you, O Sovereign God, Ruler of the Universe, who has given us this wine for our use. Fruit of the vine and work of human hands, ✠ it will become for us the Wine of Heaven.

People Blessèd be God for ever.

The Celebrant, in the name of the community, then says the following

O God, our Creator and Giver of all blessings: accept our grateful thanks for all that your love bestows upon us; open our eyes to recognize your gifts when they appear at times, places, and in ways we neither expect nor understand; then take our thankful hearts, and return again our gratitude as your blessing on Creation; for

Celebrant All things come from you, O Lord;

People And of your own have we given you. Amen.

The people remain standing as are able

THE HOLY COMMUNION

The Great Thanksgiving (Preface of God the Father)

The Celebrant says

The Lord be with you;

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to our Lord God.

People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

The Celebrant continues

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, through Jesus Christ our Lord. For you are the source of light and life, you made us in your image, and called us to new life in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus (S-128) Matthias (Recorded)

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your Glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

Eucharistic Prayer A

The People stand or kneel as are able, and the Celebrant continues

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify ✠ them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify ✠ us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

The People respond in a loud voice AMEN.

The Celebrant continues

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

People and Celebrant

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Host, and a period of silence is kept

Then the Fraction Anthem (Recorded) is sung

The Fraction Anthem (EOM1) Fletcher (Recorded)

Alleluia! Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia!

The Invitation

The Celebrant proclaims

The Gifts of God for the People of God.

The Celebrant then says to those worshipping online

Dear Friends in Christ, because of the coronavirus pandemic, some of us are not able to gather together physically, and thus, cannot receive the Blessed Sacrament physically. But it does not mean that those cannot receive Communion at all. God's love and blessing are without bounds, and God will not deny his grace to any who truly desire to be in communion with him. One need not eat the bread to attend the banquet. Invite into your heart the One who first invited you, and in your heart God will feast with you. I therefore invite those of you who are separated from us by distance, circumstance, or even time, to repeat after me each phrase of this Act of Spiritual Communion, to be truly united with our Maker who welcomes us and feeds us with his unconditional love.

The Celebrant reads the Act by phrases, those making the Act repeat after him

Blesséd Jesus, | I believe that you are truly present in the Holy Sacrament, | and, since I cannot now receive communion, | I pray you to come into my heart. | I unite myself with you and embrace you | with all my heart, my soul, and my mind. | Let nothing separate me from you; | let me serve you in this life | until, by your grace, | I come to your glorious kingdom | and unending peace. Amen.

The Celebrant then receives the bread and wine, then distributes the bread to those present

The Celebrant comes to each communicant where they are; to receive, hold out one hand over the other, and the Celebrant will drop the bread into your hand; do not consume the bread until the Celebrant is at least six feet away from you. There should be no physical contact.

*After all have received, the Celebrant returns to the Altar, consumes any remaining bread, and cleans the chalice
The Deacon then cleans the remaining vessels and removes them from the Altar*

Because Morris County has returned to the High Risk Level Orange, congregational singing is once more prohibited by the Diocese of Newark due to the increased danger of virus transmission through the smaller, aerolized droplets of saliva which are generated by singing and which remain suspended in the air longer than those generated by the speaking voice. Congregational singing will again be permitted when the infection risk level for the county returns to the Moderate Risk Level Yellow.

If you or those close to you are unvaccinated and have no medical condition that contraindicates vaccination, please get the full series of whichever vaccine is available as soon as possible.

If you have questions or concerns about the vaccines, please talk to your doctor, pharmacist, or other licensed health care professional. Follow the guidelines of The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, and your state or local public health department. Some postings on social media spread serious misinformation and promote “cures” that may seriously harm or even kill you.

After some 6 billion doses given globally, the outcomes are clear: the vaccines do prevent nearly all the vaccinated from being infected; and if they do get a breakthrough infection, they almost certainly will avoid admission to the ICU, and will likely not require a ventilator—and they deny the vaccine an opportunity to mutate. All these things protect you, protect your loved ones, protect those who medically cannot be vaccinated, and protect the entire community. Thank you.

Love yourself and love your neighbor, all in one jab.

The Post-Communion Prayers

The Celebrant then returns to the Altar and says

Let us stand as we are able and pray together.

The People stand as are able

Celebrant and People

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food
in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you
with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Celebrant then says

Let us pray together for St. John's in Transition.

Celebrant and People

Almighty God, giver of every good gift: look graciously on your Church, and so guide the minds of those who shall choose a priest for this parish; that we may receive a faithful pastor who will care for your people and equip us for our ministries; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing

The Celebrant blesses the People

May God bless you with discomfort: discomfort at easy answers, half-truths, and superficial relationships, so that you may live deep within your heart. Amen.

May God bless you with anger: anger at injustice, oppression, and exploitation of people, so that you may work for justice, freedom, and peace. Amen.

May God bless you with tears: tears to shed for those who suffer from pain, rejection, starvation, and war, so that you may reach out your hand to comfort them and to turn their sorrow into joy. Amen.

May God bless you with foolishness: foolishness to believe that you can make a difference in this world, so that you can do what others claim cannot be done. Amen.

And the blessing of God Almighty, the ✠ Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you, and remain with you always. Amen.

The Dismissal

Deacon Go in peace to love and serve the Lord!
People Thanks be to God!

Please Note: We have now resumed our regular in-season schedule of worship services:

Sundays, The Holy Eucharist at 10:30am

In case you were wondering...

Why does my mic have to be muted? And why should I read along aloud at home?

One of the truths online worship has taught us is the difficulty of reading in unison when the people are not all in the same room. Individual voices travelling through the circuits and switches of the Internet will not all arrive at the same time. Yet unison reading is at the heart of our corporate worship, our “common prayer,” as though all our voices are blending into one as they rise to the ear of the Almighty. But we know that: 1) when God leads us into a wilderness, we will lose some things that give us familiarity, comfort, and meaning; but 2) God is always with us, leading us to something new, helping us see new solutions for new problems.

We believe God has led us to the following solution for this problem: only the mics of the clergy and the lectors (readers) will be active during the service. All others will be muted throughout. But this does not make the Office something to be “watched;” participation is expected of each of us, to contribute to “the work of the people” (which is what the Greek origin of the word “liturgy” means). The sections appearing in boldface are the People’s responses, and you, as the People, should read them, aloud and with intention, along with the speaker.

Even though you won’t hear your fellow worshipers’ voices blending with yours, you will still be reading in unison, even though each one is in a different place. You may not hear those voices joined, but God does, for separation by space, and even by time, means nothing to the One who is everywhere, always. If you are new to streaming worship, it may at first feel awkward to read aloud whether you are alone or with others; you will grow used to it. Try to remember that the very act of reading the same words at the same time as everyone else folds you in with the rest and anchors you in the community’s “common prayer.” And don’t forget, in worship we are always surrounded by the “Angels and Archangels and all the company of heaven;” and even though we can’t hear them, what honor and glory to know that our voices are added to theirs!

What is “spiritual communion”?

Long-standing practice in the Episcopal Church has offered a means for the faithful to receive Holy Communion spiritually when it cannot be received physically. For example, in the service for the Ministration with the Sick in the Book of Common Prayer, the following rubric is given:

If a person desires to receive the Sacrament, but, by reason of extreme sickness or physical disability, is unable to eat and drink the Bread and Wine, the Celebrant is to assure that person that all the benefits of Communion are received, even though the Sacrament is not received with the mouth. (BCP, p. 457)

In these challenging times, many people may find themselves unable to receive Holy Communion physically due to illness or suspended worship gatherings. We are using a venerable resource from the (Anglican) Saint Augustine’s Prayer Book (Forward Movement, 2014) made available by Forward Movement Publications.

Forward Movement is a ministry of the Episcopal Church that inspires disciples and empowers evangelists. With offices in Cincinnati, Ohio, Forward Movement has been serving the Episcopal Church since 1935 by producing resources such as Forward Day by Day, books, apps, pamphlets, conferences, courses, and more.
