THE THIRD SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY

January 23, 2022 10:00am

Livestreamed via Zoom (In-person worship temporarily suspended)

The People's responses are in boldface. Rubrics (liturgical directions) are in red.

"Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing."

THE ENTRANCE RITE

The Opening Acclamation

The People stand as are able as the Celebrant says

Blessed be God, ✘ Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

The Celebrant continues

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

People Amen.

The Hymn of Praise Gloria in Excelsis

Said by all together

Glory to God in the highest, and peace to his people on earth.

Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father,
we worship you, we give you thanks,
we praise you for your glory.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:
have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father:
receive our prayer.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

The Celebrant continues

Give us grace, O Lord, to answer readily the call of our Savior Jesus Christ and proclaim to all people the Good News of his salvation, that we and the whole world may perceive the glory of his marvelous works; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The People sit for the first Reading

THE WORD OF GOD

The First Reading

Nehemiah 8:1-3, 5-6, 8-10

A Reading from the book of the prophet Nehemiah.

All the people of Israel gathered together into the square before the Water Gate. They told the scribe Ezra to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the LORD had given to Israel. Accordingly, the priest Ezra brought the law before the assembly, both men and women and all who could hear with understanding. This was on the first day of the seventh month. He read from it facing the square before the Water Gate from early morning until midday, in the presence of the men and the women and those who could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive to the book of the law. And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people, for he was standing above all the people; and when he opened it, all the people stood up. Then Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God, and all the people answered, "Amen, Amen," lifting up their hands. Then they bowed their heads and worshiped the LORD with their faces to the ground. So they read from the book, from the law of God, with interpretation. They gave the sense, so that the people understood the reading.

And Nehemiah, who was the governor, and Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who taught the people said to all the people, "This day is holy to the LORD your God; do not mourn or weep." For all the people wept when they heard the words of the law. Then he said to them, "Go your way, eat the fat and drink sweet wine and send portions of them to those for whom nothing is prepared, for this day is holy to our LORD; and do not be grieved, for the joy of the LORD is your strength."

Lector The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

Responsory Psalm 19 Caeli enarrant

The People remain seated

The Lector begins

1 The heavens declare the glory of God, *

The People read in unison with the Lector for the remainder of the Responsory and the firmament shows his handiwork.

- 2 One day tells its tale to another, *
and one night imparts knowledge to another.
- 3 Although they have no words or language, *
and their voices are not heard,
- 4 Their sound has gone out into all lands, *
and their message to the ends of the world.
- 5 In the deep has he set a pavilion for the sun; *
it comes forth like a bridegroom out of his chamber;
it rejoices like a champion to run its course.
- 6 It goes forth from the uttermost edge of the heavens and runs about to the end of it again; *
nothing is hidden from its burning heat.
- 7 The law of the LORD is perfect and revives the soul; *
the testimony of the LORD is sure and gives wisdom to the innocent.
- 8 The statutes of the LORD are just and rejoice the heart; *
the commandment of the LORD is clear and gives light to the eyes.
- 9 The fear of the LORD is clean and endures for ever; *
the judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether.
- 10 More to be desired are they than gold,
more than much fine gold, *
sweeter far than honey,
than honey in the comb.
- 11 By them also is your servant enlightened, *
and in keeping them there is great reward.
- 12 Who can tell how often he offends? *
cleanse me from my secret faults.
- 13 Above all, keep your servant from presumptuous sins;
let them not get dominion over me; *
then shall I be whole and sound, and innocent of a great offense.
- 14 Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in your sight, *
O LORD, my strength and my redeemer.

The People stand as are able as the Deacon proclaims the Gospel

The Holy Gospel

Luke 4:14-21

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus, filled with the power of the Spirit, returned to Galilee, and a report about him spread through all the surrounding country. He began to teach in their synagogues and was praised by everyone.

When he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, he went to the synagogue on the sabbath day, as was his custom. He stood up to read, and the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written:

“The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor.

He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free,
to proclaim the year of the Lord’s favor.”

And he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. Then he began to say to them, “Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing.”

Deacon The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Homily The Rev. Barry M. Signorelli

A brief period of silence may follow the homily

The Nicene Creed

The Celebrant says

As we are able, let us stand to affirm our faith, in the words of the Nicene Creed.

The Celebrant and the People together

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The People remain standing as are able

The Prayers of the People

The Deacon and People pray responsively

Father, we pray for your holy Catholic Church;
That we all may be one.

Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you;
That your Name may be glorified by all people.

We pray for Michael, our Presiding Bishop and Primate; for Carlye, our Bishop Diocesan;
and for all bishops, priests, and deacons;
That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and Sacraments.

We pray for Joe, our President; Kamala, our Vice-President; for the Congress; the Supreme Court; for all local governments and judiciaries; and for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world;
That there may be justice and peace on the earth.

Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;
That our works may find favor in your sight.

We give thanks for the safe arrival of the Ibrahim family;
May our hospitality channel your grace and love.

Have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble, especially those with COVID-19; and protect us all from misinformation and guile.
That we may be delivered from our distress.

Give to the ☩ departed eternal rest.
Let light perpetual shine upon them.

Remembering especially blessed Mary the Godbearer and blessed John the Apostle, we praise you for your saints who have entered into joy;

May we also come to share in your heavenly kingdom.

Let us pray for our own needs and those of others.

Silence

The Celebrant bids the petitions, intercessions, and thanksgivings of the People, then prays a concluding collect

Celebrant

Almighty and eternal God, ruler of all things in heaven and earth: Mercifully accept the prayers of your people, and strengthen us to do your will; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Confession of Sin

The Celebrant says

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence is kept as all kneel or bow

Celebrant and the People

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Celebrant alone stands and says

Almighty God have ☩ mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace

All standing as are able, the Celebrant says to the People

The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

People

And also with you.

Without physical contact, the People greet one another in the name of the Lord

The Celebrant offers words of welcome, and any needed announcements are made and instructions given

THE OFFERTORY

The Offertory begins with the Celebrant saying the Offertory Sentence. Please see the penultimate page of this Order of Worship for instructions on how to safely make a donation to St. John's, Boonton electronically. Your generous support is deeply appreciated.

The Celebrant then prepares the Table

The People stand as are able Celebrant sets apart the gifts of bread and wine with the following words

Blessèd are you, O Sovereign God, Ruler of the Universe, who has given us this bread for our use. Grain of the earth and work of human hands, ✠ it will become for us the Bread of Heaven.

People Blessèd be God for ever.

Celebrant Blessèd are you, O Sovereign God, Ruler of the Universe, who has given us this wine for our use. Fruit of the vine and work of human hands, ✠ it will become for us the Wine of Heaven.

People Blessèd be God for ever.

The Celebrant, in the name of the community, then says the following

O God, our Creator and Giver of all blessings: accept our grateful thanks for all that your love bestows upon us; open our eyes to recognize your gifts when they appear at times, places, and in ways we neither expect nor understand; then take our thankful hearts, and return again our gratitude as your blessing on Creation; for

Celebrant All things come from you, O Lord;

People And of your own have we given you. Amen.

The people remain standing as are able

The Great Thanksgiving (Preface of God the Son)

The Celebrant says

The Lord be with you;

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to our Lord God.

People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

The Celebrant continues

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, through Jesus Christ our Lord; who on the first day of the week overcame death and the grave, and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus

Said by all together

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your Glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed ✠ is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

Eucharistic Prayer A

The People stand or kneel as are able, and the Celebrant continues

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify ✠ them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify ✠ us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

The People respond in a loud voice

AMEN.

The liturgy continues with The Lord's Prayer, on the next page

The Celebrant continues

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

People and Celebrant

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Host, and a period of silence is kept

The Fraction Anthem: Christ our Passover

Celebrant Alleluia, Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.
People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

The Invitation

The Celebrant proclaims

The Gifts of God for the People of God.

The Celebrant says to those worshipping online

Dear Friends in Christ, because of the coronavirus pandemic, some of us are not able to gather together physically, and thus, cannot receive the Blessed Sacrament physically. But it does not mean that those cannot receive Communion at all. God's love and blessing are without bounds, and God will not deny his grace to any who truly desire to be in communion with him. One need not eat the bread to attend the banquet. Invite into your heart the One who first invited you, and in your heart God will feast with you. I therefore invite those of you who are separated from us by distance, circumstance, or even time, to repeat after me each phrase of this Act of Spiritual Communion, to be truly united with our Maker who welcomes us and feeds us with his unconditional love.

The Celebrant reads the Act by phrases, the People repeating after him

Blessèd Jesus, | I believe that you are truly present in the Holy Sacrament, | and, since I cannot now receive communion, | I pray you to come into my heart. | I unite myself with you and embrace you | with all my heart, my soul, and my mind. | Let nothing separate me from you; | let me serve you in this life | until, by your grace, | I come to your glorious kingdom | and unending peace. Amen.

The Celebrant then receives the bread and wine

The Celebrant then reverently removes any remaining bread and wine from the Altar

The People remain standing as the Celebrant goes to the Altar and says

Let us pray together:

Celebrant and People

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Celebrant then says

Let us pray together for St. John's in Transition.

Celebrant and People

Almighty God, giver of every good gift: look graciously on your Church, and so guide the minds of those who shall choose a priest for this parish; that we may receive a faithful pastor who will care for your people and equip us for our ministries; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epiphany Blessing

The Celebrant blesses the People

May Christ, the Son of God, be manifest in you, that your lives may be a light to the world; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, ✠ the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you, and remain with you always. Amen.

The Dismissal

Deacon Let us bless the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

You are invited to stay online for the Virtual Coffee Hour, which begins shortly after the conclusion of the liturgy

In case you were wondering...

Why does my mic have to be muted? And why should I read along aloud at home?

One of the truths online worship has taught us is the difficulty of reading in unison when the people are not all in the same room. Individual voices travelling through the circuits and switches of the Internet will not all arrive at the same time. Yet unison reading is at the heart of our corporate worship, our “common prayer,” as though all our voices are blending into one as they rise to the ear of the Almighty. But we know that: 1) when God leads us into a wilderness, we will lose some things that give us familiarity, comfort, and meaning; but 2) God is always with us, leading us to something new, helping us see new solutions for new problems.

We believe God has led us to the following solution for this problem: only the mics of the clergy and the lectors (readers) will be active during the service. All others will be muted throughout. But this does not make the Office something to be “watched;” participation is expected of each of us, to contribute to “the work of the people” (which is what the Greek origin of the word “liturgy” means). The sections appearing in boldface are the People’s responses, and you, as the People, should read them, aloud and with intention, along with the speaker.

Even though you won’t hear your fellow worshipers’ voices blending with yours, you will still be reading in unison, even though each one is in a different place. You may not hear those voices joined, but God does, for separation by space, and even by time, means nothing to the One who is everywhere, always. If you are new to streaming worship, it may at first feel awkward to read aloud whether you are alone or with others; you will grow used to it. Try to remember that the very act of reading the same words at the same time as everyone else folds you in with the rest and anchors you in the community’s “common prayer.” And don’t forget, in worship we are always surrounded by the “Angels and Archangels and all the company of heaven;” and even though we can’t hear them, what honor and glory to know that our voices are added to theirs!

What is “spiritual communion”?

Long-standing practice in the Episcopal Church has offered a means for the faithful to receive Holy Communion spiritually when it cannot be received physically. For example, in the service for the Ministration with the Sick in the Book of Common Prayer, the following rubric is given:

If a person desires to receive the Sacrament, but, by reason of extreme sickness or physical disability, is unable to eat and drink the Bread and Wine, the Celebrant is to assure that person that all the benefits of Communion are received, even though the Sacrament is not received with the mouth. (BCP, p. 457)

In these challenging times, many people may find themselves unable to receive Holy Communion physically due to illness or suspended worship gatherings. We are using a venerable resource from the (Anglican) Saint Augustine’s Prayer Book (Forward Movement, 2014) made available by Forward Movement Publications.

Forward Movement is a ministry of the Episcopal Church that inspires disciples and empowers evangelists. With offices in Cincinnati, Ohio, Forward Movement has been serving the Episcopal Church since 1935 by producing resources such as Forward Day by Day, books, apps, pamphlets, conferences, courses, and more.
